The myth
and the magic,
the music and
the mysticism,
reaching out
to the wandering
cathedrals of our thoughts.
The heat and
the mystery,
ever so powerful,
romantic, danceable
and soulful
MarKamusic
weaves an entrancing
breath of sounds
and colors from the halls of modern and
ancient souths.
The MarKamusic
ensemble appeals to our collective musical
memory from the soul
of persevering
Caribbean sands,
supple Rain Forests and Andean plateaus.

MarKamusic

From the windy barren high plateaus of the Andes, the mystical Amazon and Caribbean rain forests and the desert coasts washed by the Pacific and Atlantic oceans comes a high-energy, multi-national musical ensemble that performs music deeply rooted within the folkloric, pop and traditional genres of Latin America and the South American Andean regions.

MarKamusic musicians sensibly render the musical forms and the soulful art of the cultures and countries from the south. The resulting product is an ever changing, eclectic weave of ancient, modern, aboriginal and popular themes performed on a fascinating array of more than 40 native-indigenous, western and African influenced instruments.

Like their ancestors before them MarKamusic musicians draw from the depths of their unique cultural past: Inca, Maya, Quechua, Taino, West African, Aymara and Iberian/European. MarKamusic embraces musical history but then takes it to an altogether different place. Fused with the feelings and creations of younger generations, during its performances and workshops, MarKamusic emphasizes the musical and cultural contributions of the four major influences that have shaped modern Latin American music at large: the indigenous, the West African, the Iberian, and the United States. Traditional rhythms and musical forms from these diverse cultures slowly fused over the centuries, creating today's Latin American traditional, folk and popular musics. MarKamusic's careful choice of repertoire and instrumentation conveys this historic evolution to the audience. Deeply moving and full of fresh and ancient energy, MarKamusic's songs call out to the senses of our collective human memory and to the doors of our ancient hearts. A sense of unity is evoked among listeners as they share the enchanting musical journey of MarKamusic.

MarKamusic Goal

MarKamusic's goal is to debunk western stereotypes of South and Latin American music and culture at large. By sharing the many musical gifts of these lands in their purest forms as well as blended with newer, hybrid creations of subsequent artistic and historic musical developments, MarKamusic portrays the vast cultural wealth of these regions in a cornucopia of musical knowledge. In the United States, profit interested groups have purposely created an aura of mysticism and mystery around the Latin American music genre and its people. Their efforts, geared to maximize the genre's consumption and thus their own profitability, have misinformed North American audiences about the poise, representation, performance, accuracy and content of Latin American music. In combination with North American's increasing interest in cultural diversity, North American audiences have been deceived into accepting profit-motivated, prepackaged products. MarKamusic treats these exquisite musical traditions with the care and love fostered by our own ancestral roots and hopes to share with listeners the enriching recognition that America is larger than the United States; that America in fact stretches from the state of Alaska down through the tip of Tierra del Fuego.

MarKamusic musicians strive to embody the potential for this harmonious exchange by drawing on the talents and resources of one Peruvian, one Ecuadorian, one Guatemalan and three Puerto Ricans.
