If unauthorized taping or broadcasting of performance described herein occurs without prior consent as previously described, performer will consider sponsor in breach of this contract (see Breach of Contract below).

Cancellation during event- In the event that performer properly arrives at performance site and cannot perform at agreed time, due to oversight or negligence of sponsor, or sponsor's employees, or sponsor's representatives, due to (but not limited to) double-billing, scheduling error, breakdown of sponsor's equipment or technical facilities; delays or tardiness, acts of vandalism, fire drills, bomb scares, acts of terrorism, acts of God or for any other reason not the fault or mistake of performer, the performer reserves the right not to perform and sponsor agrees to make full payment herein agreed to performer regardless of whether performance described above was never or even partially performed. Once performer has downloaded sound system on stage, even partially, if sponsor decides to change the location of stage, for any reason whatsoever (rain, snow, or any kind of storms, acts of God, vandalism, bomb scares, acts of terrorism, poor decision making in choosing stage location, etc), sponsor will compensate performer with $500.00 extra than originally agreed for sound system rental. In the event that performer deems dangerous for its personnel, assistants and equipment (Sound System and Musical Instruments) to be set up, for any reason whatsoever. Performer will elect not to perform and sponsor will compensate performer for full amount of contract. In the event that performer cannot start its performance at agreed time due to sponsor's delays of any nature, performer may elect at its discretion, a new starting time not to exceed 30 minutes from the original starting time. By signing this contract, Sponsor agrees to be fully liable for the total value of performer's sound system and equipment (which includes performer's musical instruments) should damages occur to such equipment due to, but not limited to, sponsor's or sponsor's employees and representative's oversight or negligence, arising out of or in connection only with services performed under this contract. The time frame in which this clause applies extends from the very moment performer starts downloading their equipment and until all such equipment is back in the trailer/ bus/car uploaded in its entirety.

Cancellation prior to event- A performance cancellation by the sponsor – other than a weather cancellation - is considered "sudden" if it occurs _____ days or less prior to performance date. This predetermined time spans exactly from "start time" of performance to "end time" of performance as specified in the present contract, therefore performer will cease to perform exactly at contractually agreed "end time" of performance. If a delay in the "start time" of performance occurs due to sponsor's delays of any nature whatsoever, the "end time" of performance will remain the same as specified in this contract.
